Normal Heights Elementary School

3750 Ward Street, San Diego, CA 92116

Built in 2006
Site Acreage: 5.5 acres
430 Students

Guiding principles were established by the Board of Education's Ad Hoc Task Force on the Bond to assist in developing educational facilities that:
- are the heart and soul of the community
- have parity of the physical facilities and structures
- improve student learning and achievement
- improve accountability

Site-Specific Bond Project List

The following needs were identified through a comprehensive planning process, which included input from school site representatives to cluster meetings, district departments and other assessment measures.

The language below will be included in the bond resolution:

Normal Heights Elementary School opened in 2006 as a completely new facility. As one of San Diego Unified School District's newest schools, Normal Heights Elementary School meets the current district facility standards. Future improvements, within the areas of need identified in the bond measure, may be required.   This school will benefit from the site discretionary fund allocation of $150 per student.
